

A stylized illustration of a bridge spanning a body of water. The bridge has a tall, white, rectangular pier on the left side. A road with white dashed lines runs along the bridge, with several small white cars driving on it. The water is represented by a blue area with white diagonal lines. The sky is a light blue color. The overall style is graphic and modern.

New Concepts for Coating Protection of Steel Structures

Berger/Wint
editors

ASTM STP 841